CATHOLIC EDUCATION IN PURSUIT OF TRUTH AND EXCELLENCE

AN ACADEMIC TRADITION

Modern Catholic education traces its roots to an academic tradition of the Catholic Church that recognizes the legitimacy of knowing through the intellect and through Faith. It is an academic tradition that depends on the intellect and good scholarship. To use Faith as a substitute for good scholarship would be offensive to the tradition and a compromise of Faith and scholarship.

The tradition understands that there is a distinction between Faith and reason but not necessarily a contradiction. Faith and reason are two ways of knowing and each can exist in one person without conflict.

TRUTH

Truth is one regardless whether it is science, theology or faith. If we are to understand Catholic education, we must understand that the Church has a profound respect for the true and a love of those who come to her seeking truth and training in the scholarly arts of literacy and numeracy. It is a fact that she has been betrayed, sometimes by her own teachers, some of whom have used their office for sinful and selfish ends. Nevertheless, modern education probing the mystery of how we come to know, would be remiss if it did not examine the rich treasure of educational principles, resources and pedagogy that the Church holds as heritage.

A PEDAGOGY

For example the Church advocates the pedagogy of St. John Bosco, a nineteenth century saint and educator who believed that every classroom should be a place of reason, religion and kindness. Reason, because the student is intellectual and possesses the power of reason. Religion because God the ultimate reality is continually creating the world. Kindness, because students learn best in a kind and gentle atmosphere.

PHILOSOPHY

There is a philosophy that guides Catholic education. A philosophy begins with a consideration of things persons, acts and relationships in their primary elements. Philosophy addresses such questions as:

What is the nature of things? of persons?

What actions might we expect logically from persons and things?

How do persons and things relate to one another?

The Great Books, the movements that have decided the course of history or affected and effected the way society has organized itself, invariably begin with a philosophy. Likewise, education in Ontario, if it is to have expectations of its graduates must agree on the answers to certain basic philosophical questions such as:

What is the nature of the person being educated?

What outcomes do we expect?

Why do we want to educate?

How does education relate to: family, our neighbours, our ability to be productive?

Catholic education is as contemporary as other educational traditions in our Province. We use current resources and our teachers are familiar with the latest research and empirical findings of science. As well, we are enriched by the Scriptures, the teachings of the Church, the lives of great teachers and academics who have integrated the Gospel with their scholarship.

A clear and demonstrable educational alternative is available to the citizens of Ontario. An alternative which not only has a history of producing scholars and well-educated citizens but an alternative which has the experience and knowledge to educate and direct the young towards responsible and productive personal lives.

Our schools are agents of change. We expect our graduates to make a difference in their society, to be competent students well prepared for further study; people who have good morals and have sound reasons prompting them to live morally good lives personally and to make just decisions concerning business. Such lofty aims and objectives depend on a support structure of Church and home. Catholic schools integrate their Theology into all aspects of their operation: their community, their academic program, their school activities. Catholic schools do not teach Catholic Geometry nor Catholic French. However, each subject area of the curriculum is integrated with our Theology and our practice of Catholicism. Thus our Science, Mathematics, Art describe a reality which has been and is being created.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS - INDIVIDUAL SCIENCES AND THEIR INTERRELATIONS

In a Catholic school, individual scientific areas operate within and according to their inductive and deductive terms of reference. Without such procedures our academics would be suspect. Other academic traditions may see their educational obligation completed with the delivery of a scientific conclusion. A Catholic school must complete the pursuit of reality and excellence through reference to its Theology, the obligation of love of God as Creator and Father and the obligation in justice to love neighbour.

The Catholic Academic Tradition prompts us to relate all truth to the source of truth itself. Thus, we discover continually an interrelatedness of everything we teach. It is the experience of the Catholic Academic Tradition that no one Science stands alone: Science, Literature, Art and Theology have the common task of revealing the true. Each must be true to its methods and procedures and be related dependently on the others without compromise; all must find themselves interrelated in a way which causes truth to be enhanced.

KNOWLEDGE MUST RELATE

Father Wilfred Dwyer C.S.B. a Catholic Educator of note, described Catholic Education in one of his lectures:

Not to know the relative disposition of things is the state of a slave or a child. To have mapped the universe, to have illustrated the relationship between Science, Literature, Art and Theology is the boast or at least the aim of Catholic Education.

The nature of Catholic Education is to relate all truth. Theology is not confined to Sunday nor are the conclusions of Science free of a relationship to Theology.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS - PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Catholic Schools are similar to other schools in that they have many events that make up the life of the school. However there is an essential difference. It is precisely in the Gospel of Christ, taking root in the minds and lives of the faithful, that the Catholic School finds its definition as it comes to terms with the cultural conditions of the times. The Catholic School teaches its pupils to discern in the voices of the universe, the Creator whom it reveals and, in the conquests of Science to know God and man better. (The Congregation for Catholic Education, The Catholic School, Rome 1977) Catholic Academic programs pursue the relative disposition of things, be it theology and mathematics or science and art, to do less would be to confine our students to ignorance or expose them to the risk of not knowing the complete truth. In Catholic Education there is no conflict in truth; truth is cherished and treasured wherever it is discovered. Relating all knowledge to truth does not, in any way compromise the independence of the methods or procedures so much a part of the individual science. Rather it questions not only whether methods, procedures and conclusions work technologically but also whether they are true, good and just.

The scholarship of the Catholic School is not limited to empirical investigation. Rather, it is still able to be empirical and still be inspired to excellence and responsibility through its relation to all branches of knowledge, to all truth. The abundant proof of such a statement is illustrated in the scholarship and discoveries of Catholic scholars and research scientists and the constant concern of our Catholic Schools for academic excellence and justice.

Father T.F. Mohan C.S.B. Principal, St. Michael's College School, Toronto.

DEMIC ARDS

St. Michael's College School has always been proud of its distinguished level of academic excellence. On the night of September 27th 1994 the school community gathered together to officially recognize those students who continued that tradition of excellence by maintaining an average grade of eighty percent or better. This year's master of ceremonies was Mr. Prendergast, and the night's special guest speaker was the Reverend George Smith C.S.B., an old friend of Fr. Mohan's from Alberta and the president of St. Joseph's College affiliated with the University of Alberta. His rousing speech urged each St. Michael's graduate to consider a diversified University program in the liberal arts. Food and drinks were provided afterwards by the always gracious Parents Guild. The evening proved an interesting and fitting tribute to academics at St. Mike's.

T.S. Eliot's literary genius created writings touching on matters of importance not only to himself but also to mankind at large. This is definitely true of his play "Murder in the Cathedral" performed here at St. Michael's on November 25, 26, and 27 under the expert direction of Fr. McKinnon. He couldn't have done as well, however, without the help of assistant director Nick Racanelli and stage work supervisor Otino Corsano.

The two-act play was a theatrical success, considering it has been one of the most difficult plays attempted here in several years. Veteran Dan Siatkowski performed brilliantly in the lead role of St. Thomas Becket. Astounding performances were also had by the Four Teopters, all relative newcomers to the theater (Alvin Fan, Gavin Devane, Marc Toppings, and Nicolas Pappalardo), as well as by the entire cast.

Father Arthur Holmes C.S.B.

1930 - 1994

In 1943 a young boy of thirteen entered a door marked "Students Entrance" to the St. Michael's College School building on Bay Street just two blocks south of the busy intersection at Bloor.

At a time when the war effort was reaching its peak in Toronto, young Arthur Joseph Holmes stepped into the busy corridor of the school one September morning. In 1943 the building was forty-one years old and had the look of Victorian origin. To the left he could see the door marked "Principal's Office" and to his right as he stood there, he saw a statue of Our Blessed Mother which dominated the intersecting corridors. Surging around him were the students, all of whom were bigger than he, and to this youngster, who was small in stature, some appeared to be grown up men. His curious eyes took in all this, for he was a curious boy and he saw among the students, black robed figures moving down the corridor with urgency and authority, their cassocks swirling around them. These were the Basilian Priests who were the teachers in this school.

Arthur was possessed of a brilliant mind and soon found favour with his teachers. His mathematics teachers especially found that they could call upon Art and receive a correct answer. Art was a student who could reduce ideas to bare bones and expose the basic concepts concisely.

Art soon became involved in athletics and though small of stature his quickness and agility made him a leader on the field. Later he was to become a good coach and a Director of Athletics at St. Mikes.

Upon graduation Art did what was most logical to him, that was to become a priest and a teacher and so joined the Basilian Fathers whom he had come to know and admire. After ordination in 1957, Father Art taught at St. Michael's and later spent twelve years at St. Charles' College in Sudbury, Ontario and returned to Toronto's St. Mike's.

His students saw him as an able, dedicated and intense mathematics teacher - the ultimate professional math teacher, who could inspire both the highest and the lowest in the class. He sought out those in mathematical difficulties and brought a special talent to cure their ills. He was referred to lovingly as The Math Doctor. Father Art cherished his love for math and blended it with his love for sports as he worked on probabilities and averages of teams and players. Father Holmes was a man of the people and had great sympathy with those who had problems and spent many hours counselling souls.

Father Holmes died of a heart attack while out of town on vacation last July; it was fifty-one years after he had passed through The "Students Entrance" that he entered the portals of heaven. R.I.P.

Nicolas Agius

The last five years have felt like "Agius" but somehow I made it through. Memories include: 2 years of Mr. Tannis, Bus #7, Tatt's Messerschmitts and Good times Charlie Park" in period 6 Ms. Sommers, Gr. 11 English with Padre, post-bio seminar parties downtown, CEO of photography department, Sunday night Buzzer games with "El Producto", in between at lunch, Pulp... in my O.J., turning down U.S. football scholarships, Double Nards in OAC, 91% with Mr. Joha (Metane).

Vicente Agovino

It would take me more than a lifetime to erase the memories that were accumulated throughout these last five years. "Get some hair!" with "N", Period 6 Ms. Sommers, we rule, Docce in the halls with the boys, "Educational" lunchtime discussions with "La Famiglia", I'd like to thank all those who have made my stay here unforgettable and an extra special thanks to the Basilians for keeping me out of trouble. Orale.

Steven Andrade

This year has been an extravaganza to say the least. Big up to the Majestic Productions and big up to Outlaw, the face of the future. Shouts going out to T.T. and all the Bruthas especially M-16, A.K.A. the smiling big head, P.O.L. A.K.A. the Croatian Sensation, Al "Decznut" Pasta, Raymond "Rayzor" Gaggi, and John "the fur" Montefiore. Thanks for the classics.

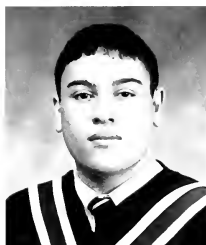

"Whatever the mind of man can conceive and believe it can achieve"

-Napoleon Hill

Philip Apong

Five years ago when I first donned my blazer and entered these yellow halls I ventured into a whole new world. I leave behind what seems to me, a second home. I would like to thank all the teachers and staff for introducing me to the various truths of life. I am very grateful for the hard work of my parents, without which my attendance at St. Mike's would have been impossible. Thanks God for making these five years so fruitful.

Michael Arage

Goodness, discipline, and knowledge, may they be your guide in the future. Best of luck to Michael.

Giovanni Baiocco

Five years, what can I say? Tea time in the garden! The Shop! BubbaLou loosing it! Props to Mr. Narducci, Fr. Enright, Mr. Tannis, Ms. Sommers, and Mr. Fischer! no props for you, because in the end, "all we do is spark mad jams!" ... And the bricks are still yellow! Most of all, I leave St. Mike's as Pinball Champion of the World!

David Banerjee

The road goes ever on and on,

Out from the door where it began,

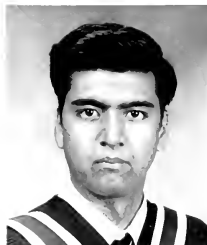

Now far ahead the road has gone,

Let others follow it who can! Let them a journey new begin.

But I at last with weary feet will turn towards the lighted inn. My evening-rest and sleep to meet.

-B. Baggins

I'll always remember Western '94, singing in Gr. 11 Religion, Crewball, and Mr. "Friggin" McKernan "WOW! It's AWE-SOME!"

Joseph Baring

Has it been five years already? For some reason it feels like three. I have had many memories in those five years: Slip'n Slide '92, Queen's Caravan '94, lunch time jokes with Adrian, Gamal, and the boys, Christmas carols before exams, Spare Crew '95, Mr. Lewis's Religion, Mr. Fischer's Ethics, and Mr. Pagano's History. I would like to thank my family, and all my friends, for making high school an incredible experience. I came, I saw, I'm lying. I was never here.

"He who has imagination without learning has wings and no feet." The Dragon has left the Dungeon." Last guy out shut the gate."

Ernesto Basso

Well boys, it's been five and I'm still alive. I can't say it's always been smooth sailing but most of my memories are good ones, with Gr. 10 homeroom, Colombo, Sommers' madness, JP's cottage, May 24, and those I labour day weekends all among my top ten. Thanks to all the people who have influenced me. I've changed and am no longer the niner I was when I first set foot in this place. Hopefully I've changed for the better. So to all the Boyz and everyone else who made life just a little more bearable. Wanderers forever.

David Bellmore

In grade nine I would open the yearbook, read the grad quotes and wonder if I would ever get to write my own. Here I am, five years later, writing my grad quote. I would like to thank all my teachers and especially mom and dad for putting up with all my crazy antics. There have been many memories, Bus #7, Whistler '94, dental in E'sville, first annual resting & reminiscing, Point Au Baril '92, May 24 '94, mid-lake swims, Copus, and of course tooting in Muskoka with Millisy, and getting busted for everything!

Angelo Benedetti

h, the memories: Mrs. Sommers 4A, PAC Physics (???), Fr. McKinnon's religion (ZZZ), Mr. Lewis' Kung Fu, Mr. Narducci's MAT JFK & O.J. OAI, Mr. McKernan's wild monologues, period 5 bare (yawn), the Dome, Calceito, FESTA, Circolo, Mr. Grassi's temper tantrums during the Italian plays, Fr. G. . . . I can honestly tell you that SMC has taught me many great things. Thank you. S. "Who is Joe Baring?" CIAO

Christopher Boddy

It was a pleasure to have you here at S.M.C. Christopher. Always remember the lessons you learned here.

Neil Bond

LATER!!

Jason Bowen

"If ya wanna run with the big dogs ya gotta get off the porch!" To the pride, the truth, and the character St. Mike's has given me. To great memories in: Muskoka, Wasaga, Collingwood, Quebec, and Acapulco. To memories of: S.S.A. Star, mud slinging, tobogganing, Buzzer games, Metrohawl, and road trips. Thanks to, my family (& the Lecours), Sarah, and of course the 3 Amigos. With a special shout-out to all the "big dogs" who made my 4 years at St. Mike's unforgettable. Peace in the Muddle East.

Michael Bravo

eah, Heck Yecaaah! 5 years on Death row and I'm finally getting out. highlights include playing "Dvce" during lunch and chem class, '94 first Calceito Fourney, and being trainer for the SKB for a "whole" week. Don't worry Sister, this is not planned.

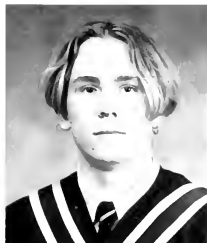

Christopher Brigger

5 years and 2" crazy people on the subway later. The time has come to move on. "Co-operate and graduate" has finally paid off. There was the world's stupidest question in Gr. 10 Latin. Senior hockey trainer/manager Gr. 11, 12, 13, Peterborough (Marius'), St. Catharines, Father Goetz, Mr. Narducci's JFK theories, Fr. McKinnon's Art-Spore, Mr. Lewis' karate lessons, and of course Mister triggin' McKernan. Thanks boys.

Stephen Brockerville

All those day-glow freaks who used to paint the face, they've joined the human race, something's will never change. Son you were mistaken, you are obsolete, look at all the white men on the street." "Kid Charlemagne" Steely Dan.

All good things must come to an end. Many thanks to those who make St. Mike's what it is. So much for pinball and afternoon tea with the boys, however. I plan not to see 6:30 AM again for a while. May the farm and truck stop never lose it's enlightenment.

Matthew Bujak

Five years, five wrestling seasons, and many bruises later... Dazed and Confused, it's been a great stay here at St. Mike's. Memories include: OFSAA every year, Mr. Zahra's chili, Mr. Narducci's calculus stories, Nice Exchange '94 and the great moped escape into Italy, smokin' Davie Ts discussions, Muskoka kneeboarding at White's.

"We came in here boys,
And now we leave as men.
Let's hope that some future day,
Our paths may cross again."

Ryan Bukovscaj

Pet peeves: homework, Jack's lid, and widgets. Finally my sentence is up and I've served my time. Memories are: "Tea time" on lunch, the "post-games", hockey trips, dirty hockey as a solid form of entertainment for my fans, and the great chocolate fudge at the Black Shack incident. Thanks St. Mike's.

Eugene Calabrese

"Carved upon my stone, My body lies but still I roam." -Metallica

The last five years have been great. I will never forget shop class, La Squadra in the Calcetto tournament, and Soccer with Vince, Rick, Enno and the boys. Ci serve solo un po' di dolce!

Victor Carniero

Even though I only spent one year behind these yellow bricks, I have come away with many memories: Mr. McKernan's English class, uncovering conspiracies in Mr. Narducci's class, the French Revolution in Mr. Monahan's class, and those insightful conversations held at the lunch table. Thanks to all the "Greenies" for making the transition a smooth one, particular thanks to Tait. By the way Kew, Switzerland won't win Euro '96.
"Don't look back. Something might be gaining on you." -Satchel Paige

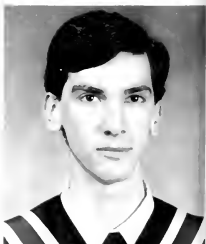

Daniel Carullo

During my last five years at the best school in the world, I've had many memories. They include band trips to San Fran ('92), Brantford ('93), Bahamas ('94) and Italy ('95), Jr. Football champs in '92 (Steel Curtain II) and my student council days as JVP and VP. There is always the squash incident and sewing hard time for firecrackers. Special thanks to Mr. P and "the classic" Mr. Eddie Narducci. I'll never forget Mrs. Sommer's homework, card games and all the OG boys including Al. Later, Ping!

Anthony Caruso

Who is that 93? Florida '94. "Is it dinner time already? I just woke up from my morning nap." Hey Joe! "Where's my five bucks?" History class, "Rejoice, we win . . . and then he dropped dead." Well it's almost 12:00, so it's time to go. "So long . . ."
". . . When I find all of the reason maybe I'll find another way find another day,
with all the changing seasons of my life
maybe I'll get it right next time. . ."

-G'NR

Anthony Cecutti

Life within the yellow bricks has been a rewarding experience. The memories will always remain: first day at SMC - September '90, Fr. Foy's money collections, Mr. Tannis' Latin class - who ate the apple?, Italian classes and drive-by shootings, "pressing on" in OAC English, 21(x) and the stat key, the Blue Blizzard, Woodbine, Montreal, Peterborough - Jariusz and Pizza Hut, SMC hockey and wearing the "M". GO YANKS! GO WINGS!

Think positive, you'll be unable to fall!"
-Lee-T

Paul A. Chiarcossi

I'll never forget, Q-notes, party bus/beast, Father Enright's homeroom, football champs '92 & '93, '93 Metrobowl, Mr Ribarich's "head starts", singing the Hip during spare, 6C, the monkey, doing good problems with Mr. Coghlan, getting the inside scoop from Mr. Narducci, and Mr. McKernan's "therapeutic F". Thinking of all those that have gone before us, I recall the words of Gordon Downie, "What can you do? They've all gone, we'll go too." Thank you St. Michael's.

Thomas Chmielewski

Is it over already? I can safely say the last 5 years have been the most difficult and exhilarating of my life. I'll always look back on: the 2200 GO train rides with Mike & Quint, grade 10 with Steve, Garret & Brad, Mr. Lewis Religion, period 5 Ninjamenia (Onegashimasa Alvin-san!), mornings with Gene & Damon, and the GameWorld Crew. Good luck guys!

"May you live in interesting times..."

-Chinese proverb

Michael Cinelli

I'm done my five years, and although I never won a TDCAA championship with the hockey team, I'll always remember the guys I played with and Peterborough. I'll never forget my grade 10 homeroom (10C), Ben's staring, Ern's first spazz, Dan's munching, J.P.'s goofiness, Al's allegations, and Joe (Mo). Later came the additions of Charlie and Francesco. When these guys are together all you get is havoc, noise and a new language. Wanderers forever.

Claudio Cipriani

from Gr. 9 English/Briscola class with Fr. Joy, Skydome '93, Florida/Bahamas '94, "Excellent dock!", Erika E. (me/you), Il Circolo (whatever!), Father Frasso, "O Cumpa!" to Mr. Conspiracy, Mike's was all good times, good friends and a well kept hortus (Thanks to the Fr. Inger Company). Later boys!

S. Who is Joe Baring!??

William Cody

I've never quite figured out why I chose to come to St. Mike's but after five years I've realized I wouldn't want to be anywhere else. I'll remember:

Buzzers: Legends, Off to Muskoka: Punch it, Bus 7, Scandals, OHL, Millsy & Bigbutt.

As well as, flying records, Alvin Connelly, Acapulco '95, Semi '95, Branksome normals, 4x OFSAA silver!# and The Boyz. Thanks for the guidance, teaching, leaders and coaching.

Donato Coladipietro

I remember: Chiarcossi & Tanzola's singing sessions, the "I don't give a bloody hell what you did in grade ten!" incident, Rock Night '94, Scarps 'n' Doobies, Art spare, Majestic/Outlaw, 6C and the Monkey, doing good good problems, Black Crows '95, Dave Luit, late detention with Mr. Fenn every day, chemistry and grade 12 math.

Joseph Corcoran

It's been a five year ride and we're finally pulling into the station. Some of the memorable scenery has been: Quebec '93, San Fran '92, Bahamas '94, Rubys, flippin' bongas, Rock Nites, intramural hockey, Tatt 4 Prez, and five musicals. Thanks to the Avemen ("they come in style"), D. Road and the Iggy Crew.

"It's the too huge world vaulting us and its good-bye. But we lean forward to the next crazy venture beneath the skies."

-Jack Kerouac

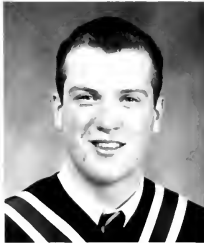

Michael Corvase

Well boys, it was a great five years here at St. Mike's, but it's time to move on. Even though some of us won't see each other again, we will always have the fierce moments that St. Michael's gave us. My safest memory was grade 11 religion class with the one and only Mrs. Sommers (and sometimes Mr. Fenn) I have to give a shout-out to the Harvey's crew that is, The Hogger, the Pick-up Artist, Tony and all the other heat-scores I didn't mention. Who can forget those safe betays in Bahamas or the original 'doccia dome games. See everyone around! Don't geeve to hard, take it easy and good luck in the future! Ciao!

Michael Costello

Memories: Power Failures, Quebec, Bus #7, 10B, Semi-Formal '95, my fine education with Ms. Sommers, 'Hey Fella', Spares, P.A. days, early dismissals, long-weekends, Christmas Holidays, March Break, & Summer holidays
Thanks for the great memories St. Mike's!

Brian Da Cambra

Wow! Has it been five years already? Time sure flies when you're having fun.

Thanks for everything.

Mark Dachuk

'Our revels now are ended: these our actors-

As I foretold you-mere all spirits and
Are melted into the air, into thin air;
And like the baseless fabrick of the vision
The cloud-capp'd towers, the gorgeous palaces,

The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve
And like this insubstantial pageant faded
Leave not a rock behind: we are such stuff
As dreams are made on, and on little life
Is rounded with a sleep."

-The Tempest

Jeffery Dalhouse

Don't open your eyes, you won't like what you see, the devils of truth steal the souls of the free..."

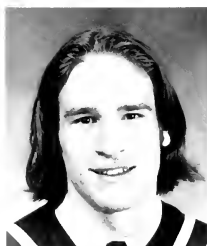

To S.M.C., the shaper of my life. I can never forget the St. Clair stn. Plastic Man, Ren and Stimpy, Vampire, our insightful random thoughts, the Pyramid, lunch at Paul's, Little Women, many mid-night hours, Brigadoon, Murder in the Cathedral, JCS, I'm Invincible!!

To the group, whatever it was: Paul, Alvin, Gener, Mikey, Thomas, Wood-man, Daniel-san... thanks guys.

"We saw shadows in the morning light. Shadows in the evening sun. Till the shadows and the lights were one."

Quinton De Klerk

The Go-Train, the bus, the subway, the yellow brick and the awesome sports; it's hard to imagine that the last five years have gone so fast. The strangest feeling had to be leaving and getting home when it's still dark. The biggest worry had to be sleeping on the Go-Train and missing my stop, and ending up in Milton. Thanks to all my teachers and friends. SMC's been great. Good Luck to all and Thanks for the memories.

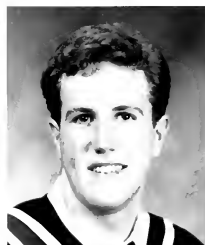

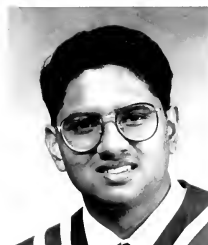

Anselm De Souza

If only I was JVP I am probably the only Anselm you will ever meet so I expect you all to remember me! Thanks to Mom and Dad for everything. I will always remember my five years of running and never seeing the finish line, that Mr. Narducci is a genius, Physics???, the Leprechaun, and JoJo's PSYCH Friends Network. To The Family -May the force be with you.

-My work is done here

Dominus vobiscum

Marc Dempsey

Five years, 900 school days, 54000 hours, 324000 minutes at St. Mike's. There are several things which stand out in my mind: Bus 7, Hello there! Leaf parties, Jays World Series Champions v2, bus trips to Muskoka, Buzzer games, Metrowin 93, and all the things I forgot to remember. Clairity me. To my family and friends and to all The Boys. Thanks for all the good times. Hoikety-Choik!

Stephen DiBlase

Five years have gone with many sleepless nights and stressful days. But I've had the best times of my life in these yellow bricks. I'll never forget running to Altmart for Mr. Tessaro, observing the scenery of Mr. Pagano's and Mr. McKernan's tangents, trying to convince Thrust I wasn't stupid, and talking politics with Nards. It was the boys I met at SMC who made me who I am and the past five years what they were. I'm forever in debt to the Basilians, my years at St. Mike's and the boys who saw me through it.

Robert Di Felice

Well guys, remember the first day of school in grade nine at Mike's? Well I don't!!! This is my first year at St. Mike's, but I do remember my first thoughts at St. Mike's "If I let anyone know I'm from Del, I'm a dead man." Well I've survived the year and it's been great. I'll never forget all the friends I've made, all the fun I've had, and the octopus incident.

P.S. I still don't understand the schedule.

Mark Dilworth

Five years later, two things are for sure: If plate is dropped in the caf, make noise and secondly if someone is insulted, say "Oh later." Thanks to: Major McKinnon for teaching me pizza is a privilege not a right, to the Coach for GUE. Remember, ladies with friendly strangers at the bookstore and the ISUs are due tomorrow, Peterborough '93, Corsano & DaMara's & Dutch Dreams, the Richview 25 and Creek.

J.P. Patrick Duffy

My 5 years at St. Mike's have given me many memories. The ones that stand out the most however are Mrs. Sommers' class, Mr. McGowan's class, first two periods spare, last two periods spare, spare with Joe Baring, McGrath's corn and carrot photographs and the shop. Bye and remember Sports gotta love 'em!

Bartosz M. Dzikowski

The times at St. Mike's will always be remembered. I'd like to thank bus #7, SMC V-ball team (wish I was there last year), Harvey's staff for creating the Junia, and best homework. Fr. Foy's English, Mr. Ribarich's Chem, Fr. Holmes math (the will never be forgotten). Other memories: post-exam bon fires, Quebec '93, Sutton '95, Cookiemann, Barysh, whatever, Tait for Prez, Ruby, play-cliques, Thanks.

Jeffrey Edgar

"When they reminisce over you," what should they remember? Remember the reddish shades of the shop at all hours, the missing sax, T-time at Timmies, and nights under the blue sky for the hometown folks. Remember that during life "a lot's going on and not a damn things happening." Finally, remember me as "the dictionary definition of the word spastie!" AAAAAHHHHH YEEEA!!

Jamie Evans

Five long years. The time is up but you don't want to leave. Thanks to all the Buzzers '95, Bus #7, Quebec '93 ($50), Retrobowl where? May 24 '94 and the trip "Barrie for you know what... Brad, 'Well e jumped into the river', Haliburton, untman, Woodstock '94. Lastly I'd like to thank my parents for their support and my brother and Brad for all their help. Remember... "Living, it's the only thing worth dying for!!" No Fear!

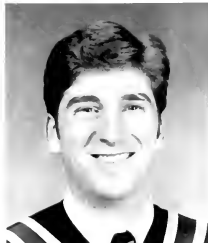

Alvin Fan

It's all a blur. But from what I can recall, I do believe that after five years, SMC was where it all began. Ender's fishing hat is under the putz-dice somewhere here; Mr. Lewis' Latin-Kung-Fu classes were, uh, interesting; Elders eating cheesecake will always remember that nice guys laugh last; Ren and Stimpuy-a-thons around Center Island. Murderous Cathedrals falling from the sky; hoping that the targets would be five feet away at OFSAA. Thanks to Fungus & Saku, the stocks will never be the same! P.L.O.' Non-backsplash Granite Clubs and semi-formals were great. Whew!! Say good-night Gracie...

Brian Farrugia

Well, it's finally over. I will no longer have to wake up in the morning and go to those yellow bricks and take those long GO train rides. For all the boys at the 4a lunch table, I wish you guys all the best. Mr Narducci's Calc class, JFK conspiracy! See you all later.

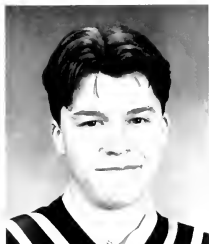

Paul Fitzpatrick

A.K.A. Fitz, The Wildman.
I'll never forget: The infamous Grade 11 dance! Cross-Country x4. Track x5? Yet another OJ/SAA Silver! My Muskoka initiation. Cody's driving expertise (140 km/h)! The Quebec Experience! SMC and Brank some in Florida '94. Milly and Suda's weekend of R & R with "the boys!" Special thanks go out to: the SMC staff, my "brown-eyed girl" and most of all, to THE BOYS!
It's time to do the Bubba-Lou.
I'm double Blue 'till I'm through.
All I've got to say to you,
is keep on fightin'... GO BLUE!

Michael Flaman

Two roads diverged in a wood,
I took the one less travelled by.
Then I got lost and now I don't know where the heck I am.

"He is like a man who, in building his house, dug deep and laid the foundation on rock." Luke 6:48
As of today we are men whose foundation is built on the yellow bricks of St. Michael's. Pain will try to crush us, hardship will attempt to destroy us, evil will endeavour to taint us, but nothing will succeed in weakening the base that we built over the past five years. Go then and show the rest of the world the pride and the glory that is St. Michael's.
"May the Force be with you always."
Obi Wan Kenobi

Adrian Fuoco

Boys, the last five years of high school have been great... the first three weren't so good. "And I'll remember the love that you gave me, now that I'm standing on my own." Oh man, Madonna said it best. I confess to the following: I voted for Tait, I stole the cow, I brought records to Ms. Sommers' class, I cheated on Words "R" Important tests, and so forth. Thanks for the memories... SEGA!

Steven Fusca

What sticks to me most from the SMC pound is English with Padre Enright, Messerschmitts in Mrs. Sommers class, hearing Steve Feeke! Winning the bocce tournament with Al and Monte's draftpicks. Peace to the notorious Woodbridge G. ALP still makin' it funky enough. I wouldn't trade these five years at SMC for anything... Well maybe for five years at Club Dante... Nah!

Raymond Gaggi

A.K.A. Rayzor
The last five years have been a blast or should I say an "EXTRAVAGANZA", and it's time to enter the real world, university. I will always remember, Mr. Zanardo's class, the inspiring Fr. McKinnon, Sister "Coles" Frances and the man Fr. Joe Grasso. Shouts go to: 2 Loud, The "D" man, M-16, P.O.L., the Dream Team and the rest of the SMC crew. OH! How could I forget the one and only Montel A.K.A. Mr. Universe. I'll never forget the times.

Joel Gagne

"It seems he's near me as I walk the halls of St. Mike's."
Thanks for Metrobowl '94. Out of the Cold, and Windsor V-Ball Tourney. Thanks to Father Zinger, Mr. Fifield, and Mr. Dignan.

Gilbert Gagne

our Alma Mater is St. Mike's Gilbert, true to the principles you learned here.

Paul Gagne

What do you mean no girls? It's hard to believe it has been five years already and the time has come for us to move on. The memories I have at St. Mike's will stay with me forever, especially Double Blue hockey, Montreal journey's '91, '92, Goulin shafting me in '92, GO train main event, Religion with Mr. Quinn (the clap), History with Pagano, English with McKernan, the lunch table boys, and the locker brawls. Thanks to D'ARCY (can't take that bucket off) O'Shea and Mark Szucs for making the years unforgettable and thanks to my parents and Father Mohan for their guidance and to all the Eagles.

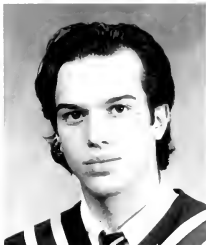

Dario Gazzellone

Always look ahead Dario. May your future be even better than your past year here. Peace, Dario.

Anthony Giambrone

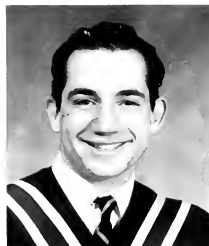

It's all over. Take it as it goes: Calceotto '94, Nice and summer '94 (misogyny). Mangio PASTA e fai fai lo BRAVO. Octopus DiFelice. Missing bags? Monte!! "Anthony, who is your informant?" Italian club '94/'95?? Sr. Soccer 93-'95. Piano with Fr. Zinger. Double Mr. Zanardo. Psycho with Mr. McKernan. Thanks to Messrs. DiLeo, Zanardo, Pagano, Monahan, and Fr. Zinger for making it cool. "Hey J.C. you're all right by me." "The time is gone, the song is over. Thought I'd something more to say."

Charles Giordano

-Pink Floyd

s time for the Sicilian to move on and ce again he has left his mark. I have ade friends and connections for life. The emories will last forever especially: mmer's period 6, Padre Enright's Eng- h, three years football field goal I didn't k, four years soccer (Dipinto's coach- g), founder of the Mohan program hat's sports to me" '95. GO LEAFS GO! earned to scam and cram. Wanderers rever!

Michael Gleeson

When I came to St. Mike's, I was a mere boy. But now, after five years I have matured into some guy that went to St. Mike's. I remember: grade 9 ski days, Ms. Sommer's, white freezes, Art class, Stage Crew, and that unsuspecting day off school. Many thanks to the guys and gals that made these years special. I'll never stop thinking about my brown eyed girl. "Like Ma Bell said, I got the Ill Commu- nications."

-The Beastie Boys

Michael Gleeson

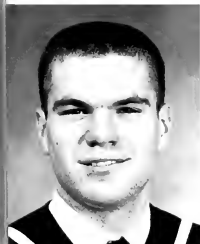

Milton is located about 45 minutes west of Toronto. It has a population of about 35,000, not including livestock. There are farms but I don't live on one and there are cows; however I have never milked nor "upped" one. I drive a car not a tractor.

Guillem Gonzalez-Lomas

"Oh pardon! I could have sworn it was a carrot. All that's turnips. You must have eaten the last. Wait, I have it. There, dear fellow. Make it last, that's the end of them."

-Vladimir

Too many times we get turnips. Thank you for giving me a carrot to chew on.

Evan Green

In my five years at SMC, these are my memories: Grade 9 English with Mr. Nicholson; Grade 12 English with Mr. Trentadue, "Bus 7" X 2, Box Wars with Fitz, Metro Bowl '93, House of Pain "D", Party bus/beast with Chark, Marx and Rovy after exam bonfires. Special Thanks to all my coaches and friends who made the five years a lot easier. Thanks SMC "What is understood ... need not be discussed."

-Loren Adams

Aron Gorsic

"Pleased to meet you." -After five long years, the delirium begins to settle in: the walls look yellow, your workout stuff smells great and you start thinking about coming to school earlier - in the middle of announcements (not after). Maybe I just need the extra sleep or I should start laying off that bad medicine. Nevertheless, when the end finally shows, I'll know that when I'm going down all the way to the promised land, my friends are gonna be there too and when you'll eventually get to go, there won't be a mirror in front of you. Happy trails - and "Hope you guess my name."

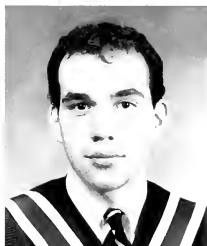

Gianpaolo Greco

Your many friends wish you the best in all you do in the future. Good luck.

Joseph Grieco

As I look back on my past year at SMC, I am called to remember OFSAA X-County '94, Double JFK with Nards, the "3.47.19" English Lit. ISU, Physics??, and History according to Mr. Monahan. I will never forget the ridicule I received from Fr. Zinger about being a Del Boy and of course, my Runner's Choice career. Thanks to the coaches and the team. Win it all next year.

John Grigg

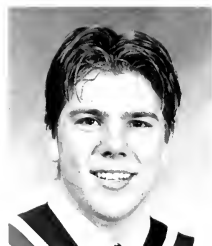

After five years of trying to stay awake and doodling in class the things I will remember most are: the "M" on my chest, mud sliding in gym, SSA star, locker brawls, illegal alien in Muskoka, Buzzer games, Metro Bowl '93, and Quebec trips. Hopefully I will forget: World Series '93, Grade 11 Latin, and grade 11 Chemistry (both times)

Thanks to the teachers who took pity on me and to the guys who helped me have the best time of my life.

Michael Grochmal

"Would I pay $3000 to just okay basketball?" I come to St. Mike's a little concerned, but so far I have never looked back. Coming to St. Mike's in grade 12 has helped me in ways I can't explain. I'd like to thank coach Paolini for helping me along the way, and Mr. John and Mr. Zownir for pushing me to be the best I can be! Zav, best luck with basketball, and Gleese, gotta work on those interview skills. Thomas, I'm still better.

Paul Guest

"One big, happy family."

-Lestat de Lioncourt
Not always ... but we've learned. Dire Straits understood: "And we have just one world, but we live in different ones." After five years what do I remember? Everything I need to, and nothing at all. The Golden Potatoes the White Boy Express, 3am 7-11 runs... "You must learn to stand up, for yourself" "Caus I can't always be around" -Tori Amos

Adrian Hazaric

"Foot docn deceiver me today!" -Gurge
And so they haven't. Over the years friends have come and gone. Throughout my sentence I've learned and grown. I'll never forget all the good times and names. Can't forget: V-ball '93-'94, the Lunch crew, Section 1 English, St. Mary's Boys, Dragon G-money. Thanks St. Mike's.

Jeremy Holmes

What everyone says is true: St. Michael's does turn boys into men - St. Mike's men. I will always remember the teachers and the way they taught me to think for myself and to strive for success. St. Mike's has also taught me discipline, the discipline to spend countless hours on projects and to make it to the Provincial Racing Canoe Team. To answer the question so many of you have asked me: yes, I will go all the way. All the way to the Olympics!

Joseph Hyginus

I came to St. Mike's in Grade 12 and the past two years have been great. I remember Mr. Coghlan's "MAM to the T", Mr. McKernan's English (the horror), and Fr. Grasso's enthusiasm. I am grateful to God, my parents and my teachers. Good luck, guys!

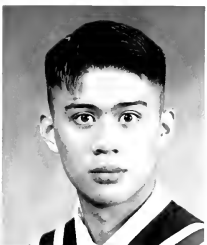

Rudolph Hykel

Five years have passed since I first stepped inside these yellow halls of SMIC. The memories I leave with will never be forgotten. Here's to: the many sleepless nights, Mr. Tannis' Tigers (9C), freezing in room 219 during homeroom, period four Ms. Sommers (we started it all!), Mr. Quinn's jokes, Latin (Kung-Fu class) with Mr. Lewis and football games. Special thanks to the Spare Guys (Chaire, Tanz and where is that Baring guy anyway?) Serban, "Peter" Karas, Veniz, Kev Tait and all the rest. It was a blast! LATER!

Riccardo Iafrate

It's been a difficult five years for me within these yellow walls, but I pulled through them. Along with a good education, St. Michael's has given me many unforgettable memories. Memories that include: Gr. 10 English with Mr. Nicholson, Gr. 11 Religion with Ms. Sommers, and Gr. 13 French with Mr. Grassi. Others include: the first annual Calcetto tournament where "La Squadra" and the one and only "Stone-wall" were unveiled. And finally, the great games of "docce" that I, myself and the rest of the "famiglia" took part in. Thanks for the memories, guys!

Christian Illumin

I'd like to thank God first and foremost for giving me the gift of life. To my parent for instilling in me my values in life. To my friends, especially Chris, Edward, Jason, Karlo, Paul, and Sean for sticking by me in thick and thin. Last but not least, St. Michael's for imparting me with the attributes of goodness, discipline and knowledge.

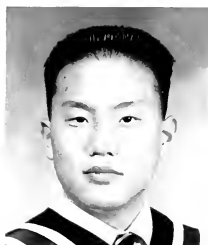

Mario Iozzo

It seems like yesterday that I ventured into the yellow hallways of St. Mike's not knowing what I was doing or where I was going. I will always remember Fr. Enright's Gr. 11 English, Heartlake, Mr. McKernan's English (Chill man!), Florida '94 (Thanks Markson!) 3 OFSAA Silver medals, finishing second in 110 hurdles at J.F.'s, running 4X100m. Most of all I'll remember all the staff and students who made my five years at St. Mike's a great experience. But now that we all go our separate ways the memories of the Double Blue will be with me always. GOOD LUCK GRADS' GO BLUE!

Christopher Italia

As I first walked the halls of yellow bricks, back when I was a niner I sure felt like an inferior fellow realizing that there is no school finer than St. Michael's College School. And as I got to know those in my grade roaming around me, There are many questions that they posed About the name of my family. But I am not Italian you fool. "To live a life, you must first live a life worth remembering" -Bruce Lee Thanks to St. Mike's.

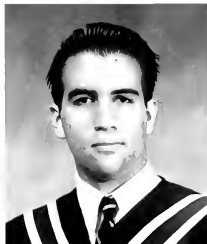

Howard Jung

St. Mike's memories. Shootin'-dash-it with Mr. Narducci, yellowing the bus at OFSAA with Rinnella & Dibasi, persying with Rigg and Darcy in Latin, sleeping in Physics, and if we weren't sleeping, playing hangman with Timmer, Johnny, and Judas Chiacrossi (Kevin "the freak" left us), and Mr. Zahra's famous solution for everything, "Just let it". After five long years, it's finally over (and I still can't understand Mr. McKernan). Everybody's off to the Big U, going their separate ways. Good bye and good luck to all the grads.

Bradley Jurik

My years at St. Michael's College School have been, to say the least, terse. Sure there have been fun times; 3-time TDCAA football champs, trip to the Metro Bowl '93, and Mr. Narducci's calculus class. However, the majority of the time was spent studying, reading, writing, studying, etc.... I can't forget to give a shout out to the coffee shop boys, the briscola gang, and the guys on the field that never gave up (don't ever lose that desire to succeed), and to Baby T. It's been great! See Ya'

George Kaldis

Change youth to old, weak to strong. The grains of time flow through my hand. Five years have passed, an eye has blinked. Melos has risen, Phoebus shines on spheres illuminate the heavens. The eternal color of yellow has passed before me, now dulled with experience, it is drab. Future ahead, the past etched in brick. Intellect, will, and spirit guide my journey forward into unknown arts, many stay, others fade. V is forever. Change - Always. "Through the dark of futures past. Magician longs to see. One change out between two worlds, Fire, walk with me" -Leland Palmer

Bryan Kennedy

Hey Rob, I think it's the Pope! The last five years have been fun and certainly interesting. Thanks to all the boyz especially the "Buzzers", Riggy and Evans for making the time "fly" by. We remember bus #7, ski days, Senior hockey, lunch at Legends, the yellow bricks and Fitz's costume. It's been a laugh. I'll never forget you! Double Blue till I'm through. Some people will never understand.

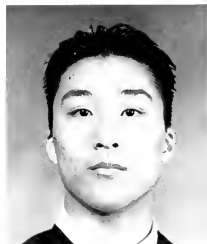

John Kim

As you look back, may you remember the good times and great friends you had at St. Mike's.

Robert Koh

The past four years at St. Michael's will be something that I'll never forget. The memories are: euchre scams at lunch, semi-night '95 with Shannon and Tamara, chemistry blow ups with Cody, New Year's eve with Shortall and the Pickering Posse, beached whales at Tracey, Buzzers road trips, locker brawls, bear attacks on Cody while camping, Caesar's hair cut, Kenn: "Who is that guy on the wall?" And to the Boyz. "Honest and True, you bet we're BLUE!"

Donald Koomoy-sing

Five years ago, I walked through these yellow bricks, now I leave. . . with the knowledge to take the derivative (when in doubt), find the Magic Matrix, and never use a pencil!!! 1500 bus rides under my belt and the only things I can remember: Gr. 10 Latin with Mr. Tannis. Pizza with Ms. Sommers. Words are Important, the "Holmes Method" - "Grrrr", Sudbury '90, and yoga with Mr. Lewis. Not to mention Mr. DiLeo's "You might have an idiot for counsel!" It was a blast. Thanks for the experience SMC. Peace.

Bartek Kus

If not for St. Michael's College School, I would be a worthless, uneducated, crack-addict, illiterate, alcoholic, atheist, undisciplined, useless, social outcast, living on student welfare in a box on Finch station eating dirt. Thanks St. Mike's.

Gilbert La

Although your time here at St. Mike's was short, we know you were proud to have been a St. Michael's man. Best of luck in all your future endeavours.

Matthew Lang

Memories: Gr. 9 French & Latin (10) with Mr. Tannis, Gr. 9 Music with Mr. Guerriere "Let me remind you...". Sutton '95, Bahamas '94, Skydome '92, Christmas concert '91, Rock Night '93 "Oops", New Years '94 & '95 & Knowledge crew- Mental, Brigadoon and J. C. Superstar, "8 is great". Cheers Boys, it's been a blast. "May the worst day of your future be no worse than the best day of your past."

Alfredo Lanzillotta

After five years of waking up at 6 AM, leaving home before the sun comes up, riding the rocket to and from school, and wearing a uniform, I can finally say IT'S OVER! But before I go, here are a few memories: briscola with the lunch crew, early morning exam studying, religion seminars and last but certainly not least, Paul's TTC turnstyle hurdle. Finally, thanks to everyone for making St. Mike's more than just a school with yellow bricks.

Domagoj Lausic

Deep thoughts....

...Metro Bowl...Ern, why you spazing?...The Semi...Shop class with Mr. G...Hub, Calc?...Dario and McGrath at the 'cuda. Oh well...car wars...the $210 case...It wasn't Charlie's fault! should've went for a field goal!...Those who have been beaten black and green... Thanks Mr. Raccoon!...Joe's Guardian Angel...the tow trucks gone trigger happy!...Get a hair cut?...Mr. Jack Fenn...Tait for Prez?...J.P.'s cottage...Tracey's locker...the killer squirrel in London...Prom night!!!!

Edward Lee

Five long years ago, I walked into these yellow halls as a niner not knowing what to expect. The school tried to teach me goodness, discipline, and knowledge. I leave with friendships and memories, I'll remember the bad times: tests, exams, ISUs... and the good times: grub days, dances, spare, the last day of exams, the CREW, etc., etc., but it's time to move on. All I have left to say is "SMC, it's been fun but we outta-here!!!"

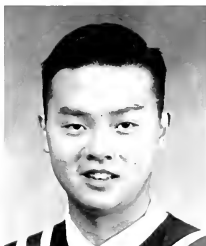

Marc Lee

"One of the signs of passing youth is the birth of a sense of fellowship with other human beings as we take our place among them."

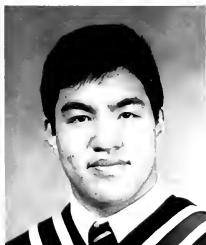

-Virginia Woolf

Thanks St. Mike's for the ups and downs, the memories, and most of all, teaching me Goodness, Discipline, and Knowledge.

Paul Linzender

My time at St. Mike's has been 6000-plus hours of fun. I'll never forget full-service breakfast with Father McKinnon, "when in doubt choose 'C'", Chem-mystery, volleyball with "lead foot" and Duncan "f-o-y-e-r" Forbes. Shouts go out to: The Codfather and Ginovanni, members of Majestic Productions.

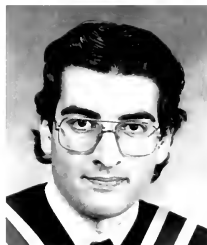

Adrian Lok

Top ten things that come to mind when thinking of St. Mike's:
10. XXY-Klein Time
9. Being the Real head of photography
8. Double blue everything
7. Lunch table boys (O'Shea, Costello, Gagne, Farrugia, Szucs, Ponessa)
6. "St. Mike's Choir?" NO!
5. JFK days in Calc and Alg (Double Nerd)
4. OAC English (Mr. McKernan)
3. Fr. Foy's homework
2. Very Hard Earned education
1. Friends
Thanks for all the good times at St. Mike's

Adriano Lombardi

Always remember you're a St. Mike's man. It makes a big difference. Good luck Adriano.

Michael Loreto

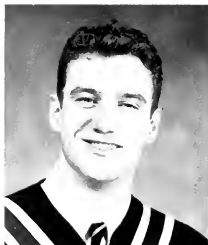

Mike's Top 5 for '95
 5. Timmy G's geo class
 4. The radio blasting in Mr. Tannis' class
 3. Ms. Sommer's class - Evening at the Improv
 2. Reading the paper with the Hogger
 1. Meeting Yus
 "To you from failing hands we throw the torch be yours to hold it high." Thanks SMC!

Jason Luk
 My how time flies when you're having fun (most of the time). Five years seem to have flown by pretty quickly, even though on some days 47 minutes felt like 47 years (last period physics on Friday afternoons come to mind). Thank you St. Michael's for all the good memories; Mr. Corsano and the Crew at DaMaria's & Dutch Dreams, the "No-name" archers, and of course Fr. Cullen and the yearbook. St. Mike's worked me pretty hard but it has taught me valuable lessons and in the final analysis, I'm proud to have been a St. Michael's man.
 By the way Brad, the Monkeys are all yours HA!

Michael Mahoney

"Cooperate and Gravitate" were words to live by at SMC. Memories: Bus 7, Gr. 10 French with Mr. Tannis, X-Country/Track (Snowballs!), Mrs. Sommers, Bio2, Mr. Monahan X 3, BioSeminar Bash, Mr. McKernan's Life Lessons, the Shocker, Tums, Sub 20. Holden, setting world records, Good Times.
 Thanks to my friends and teachers for making five years go by too fast. Good Luck Grads.
 "Never tell anybody anything. If you do, you start missing everybody."

Timothy Mak

"If we don't change our direction, we are likely to end up where we are headed."
 -Chinese Proverb
 Thanks St. Mike's for showing me the way. You have prepared me for a life of success and true happiness - now it's up to me. Here, we are not just a number, but a child of God - they really care about our well-being.
 1990-95: no regrets ... #1 H.S. in T.O. - I'll be Blue till I'm through. Well worth the 4G's/yr - but don't tell T.E.M.

Benjamin Manzo

The past five years here at St. Mike's have been clearly unforgettable and definitely most memorable. A few of my memories include: Mr. Lewis' Rock'em Sock'em videos, Gr. 10 English, Mrs. Sommers and the flyin' Meserschmitts, Padre Enright's class, the apple incident, English with Mr. McKernan (Wow, Man!), J.P.'s cottage, Metro Bowl '93, Italian class (Gr. 10-OAC), tre-sette in the cafe, run-around-sue and finally the entire O.G. crew (and Al) for years and years of good times. Well, my time has come, I must leave you St. Mike's. Ciao!
 Wanderer's Forever!

Joe Marchese
 Thanks to: Charlie (the dreamer), Ben (short), Al (c.c. conflictus), Dan (I've got to blow my trumpet), Ern (the spaz), J.P. (O.G. King), Mike (I.a. La. La. La). Also: Messers 32, Zahra, Pagano, McKernan, Monahan, McCann, Narducci and Fr. Murphy. MM: Gr. 10 English homeroom where the megapowers collided. Gr. 11 bio exam, & shop class (Mr. G), Baby Blues, watching Metrobowl from side lines '93, playing football in '94 (especially Power), Sr. B. Hockey, Buzzers and B.Ball games. Double Blue till I'm through. -Wanderers forever

Michael Marchetti

It's hard to believe how quickly five years at SMC have gone by. Memories include: Gr. 11 Religion with Ms. Sommers' Fr. McKinnon's OAC Art, discussions in Mr. Narducci's Calculus class, the unexpected in Mr. McKernan's OAC English, the Sr. Soccer team, and the Calcetto tournament '94. Now it's off to university. Thanks St. Mike's for a memorable five years.

Anthony Marchie

It is an honour and a privilege to have been part of a community that has represented the very best in education. I have certainly learned much from the athletes and the scholars of this great school. My sincere gratitude extends to the faculty, the Basilian administration, and the many students who have taken the time to help and guide me throughout these past years.

Andrew Mark

I arrived incomplete.
There are things I can never remember but there are those I will never forget.
To know is not to understand but now I can do both.
I will forever associate yellow bricks with learning and blue blazers with friends.
Four thousand dollars later...
I leave prepared.

John Marsico

I, M-16, would like to say thanks to everyone who made me smile for the past 5 years, including 2 loud, P.O.L., Da Bruths, all the teachers, the cafeteria staff, Fratello, Armarium, the tunas, the Classics, my family, and especially-God.

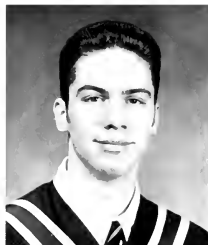

Christopher Markson

Only three years inside these yellow bricks, and my life has been turned from calm and relaxing to "stressed to the MAX". My fond memories at SMC are Metro Bowl '93 with a chance to play in the Dome, Florida with Brankome - NO FEAR and no survivors at the dreaded "Florida Workout". The friends I have made I will know forever - because I may need a loan sometime down the road! As I say farewell let me leave you with my themes. "One man's ceiling is another man's floor, meet me at the top!" "I GOT TICKETS!"

Jonathan Scott Martin

Well, this is it, high school is over. For some it is a milestone, and for others only a pebble on the road to future success. Either way, it is something never to be forgotten. Although my time here at SMC was short, I will always remember it as one of the most enjoyable years of my life. This school gave me a second chance and I want to thank the school for believing in me. I also want to thank everyone who helped make me feel at home. I made many new friends here, and I will never forget all they have done. To the Blue Raiders, you guys are like family, and I wish you the best of luck. Only God knows what the future holds but for now I just want to say THANKS!

Jack Mastrodicasa

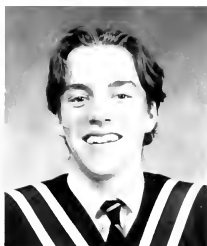

It's finally time to say goodbye and to look hopefully and excitedly into the future. In the past five years, I've made some great friendships and learned so much. St. Mike's is the best! Thanks to everyone. "The moment may be temporary, but the memory is forever"
-B. Meyer

Paul McConnon

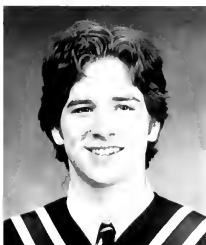

And so ends another chapter in my book of life; thank God for the Monarch notes! My memories include: Fr. Enright's Physical approach to literature, Mr. McKernan's Robin-William-esque Carpe-Diem-Breath English classes, The Fenn-Fitz-Fiasco of '92, the legendary Buzzer games, Quebec '93, Florida '94 and Acapulco Heat '95. A word of gratitude to the boys (i.e. my friends and my own) for the fun filled festivities. A special thanks to Ferris Beuller, the Hare Krishna's, Homer Simpson, Jake and the green girls, brown boys and double blue pride. Good luck to every one and finally to those who said it couldn't be done...

"Sleep tight, ya morons!"

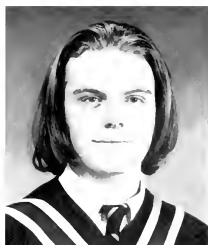

Robert McGrath

St. Mike's to me was going loco in Puleo, but "wait, who invited Cam into this conversation?"
Memories: backstage p, grandma phone home, tunnel rats, disrespect at the down under, mastering debating.
Word up to Andrew Collins and Bohdan Czysky. Peace in the Middle East.

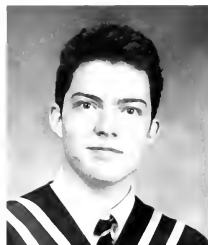

Michael McNicholas

I remember Art spare 11 Zingers water gun, pulling the goalie, period six spare, Mr. McKernan put down the book, then drink a thousand and eight two-fours... The feast of St. Michael.
"... the tide was flowing in fast to the land with a low whisper of her waves, islanding a few last figures in distant pools."
-Portrait

Mark McQuillan

Good friends and good times at St. Mike's are behind you. The best is yet to come Mark. God be with you.

Justin Ewing Medved

Well what can I say, I laughed, I cried, I kissed five years good-bye. Best memories: Harvey's Sculptures, Bus#7, Track Crew, Atlantis '93, my first "VISION" with Rob, Quebec '94 "You guys aren't French?", Howie Newsome, Flipping Bong, Sutton '94 and Am X over 8, and last but not least The IGGY CREW, without friends like you guys St. Mike's would not have been the same.

Roll the Beats!

-MC GQ

Yurij Medwidsky

May you prosper in all that you do. Best of luck to Yurij.

Karlo Mendoza

After five years of getting up before the sun does, it's finally over. Gotta send a shout out to the posse - my brother - you know who you are. Started alone but finished as 1 of 4: "Colour brought us together but our friendship runs deeper than skin" Montreal, my 18th, New Year's Eve - all good times, hope there's more to come. "Brown till I go down" -Lates! Karlo is out.

Craig Mills

A toast,

"To the good times we've had and the good times we'll have!"

Memories of a lifetime.

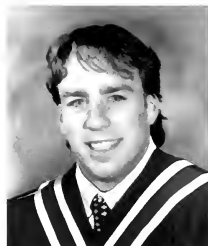

A lifetime of stories.

Life long friends.

the time of my life.

See you at the reunions!'

Thanks SMC

Vytas Mockus

We wish Vytas the best of luck in the future. God be with you.

John Montefiore

To me, St. Mike's means...

Metrobowl playoffs, Skydome, Ms. Somers 4a, Bubba-Lou, Buzzer home games, 7-11 discounts, The Smokebomb, the Raiderdome, House of Pain defence, lunch time Calciotto, Mr Walsh's sayings, mooncrashing, extravagant monkey bars, the infamous Tony Z, the '95 Double Decker strip show, Mr. Forbes' pre game speeches, and of course, who could forget all the other characters and faces from the class of '95.

Marcus Moore

Veni, Vidi, Vici. (more or less). I have experienced a great deal at St. Michael's. I will always remember my eventful years here- X-Country season, the legendary winter hockey clashes in St. Michael's, Track and Field season, I owe St. Michael's my mind, my Catholic spirit, and those all-important virtues of men- determination, hard work, community, and character. I will not forget my friends, my mentors, my school, St. Michael's, whose dynamism, life, and spirit will remain always in my heart. With hope, luck, and St. Michael's within me. I stand with confidence on the threshold of an unknown future, knowing: All alba vincero!

Gene Na

I'd like to say that it's been fun but ... Oh well. It's been an interesting five year coma and memories are aplenty: Homeroom Mrs. Sommers, the long train rides, "THE GROUP", Brigadoon, J.C. Superstar, "talent" night, and all that other stuff that I'm sure happened. Yo Jeff what's shakin'? Woodman, pianoman Dan, Al, Ron, Pat, J-squared, hey Leese Holy Crow, Shamaka! Ninja Tom, all the little girls and phil-hellenists everywhere - thanks and good luck. I see bad things arising so later all.

Ennio Naccarato

It's been five years, five years of "Goodness, Dumbness, and Knowledge". I couldn't take much more of it. But all in all St. Michael's was/was/was a better man. I'll never forget St. Michael's ability to wipe away sadness and exhaustion with one pat on the back and a laugh or "Diagias" count selling and advice. Special thanks go out to the few that made my time here memorable, Lusca, and the "Vera famiglia", "Droga", "Stonewall", and "Cliff". I sincerely hope that our friendship is indeed a long and lasting one and that we won't need to "Get some hair". PS. To all the "Tarla's" out there, see you on the other side. Orale.

Martin O'Brien

First of all, I would like to thank my mother, my father, Mr. Bill O'Brien and the rest of my family for making this all possible. Of course, I want to thank the Class of '95 and especially the Boys for all the good times, whenever, wherever. To my teachers and administration - I appreciate all your guidance.
I got more out of my years at St. Mike's than I had ever expected. I'm really sorry to go.
PS. If you vandalize my picture I'll hunt you down and kill you. Just try me.

Ryan O'Connor

My memories include: Mr. Tannis homeroom 9C, Gr. 9 music with Mr. Guernere, the Bahamas/Florida trip (especially those little yellow drinks), the festivals for both bands, Latin with Mr. Lewis, coffee talk A.K.A. Gr. 12 group math with Mr. Ribarich, Blue Raider Tourneys, ski/activity days, the R.P.S. grudge match, Sr. "B" hockey and third period spare at 7-11. Thanks to all those I have met and those who have helped me along the way.

D'Arcy O'Shea

It was a sad day for St. Michael's, the day when the greatest graduates in St. Mike's history had to leave the yellow bricks and the insane locker brawls they had loved so much. Although future students will prosper, never again will there be friends like: Suces (you're gonna hurt someone), Rigg (you saw that right), Gagne (French test temper tantrums and buckets on), Ponesse (Pidge), Costello (tank... yeah right chief), and Howie (I can never win). Long live the "Buzzers" and O'Shea... O'Shea, O'Shea O'Shea.

Alexander Olivieri

The AF's fast and furious five years at SMC. I remember: football practice, Tre Sette, Fests, Messerschmitts, Frank Luriano, the apple incident, the Baldies, the fumble vs. Tech, all those fans at the Dome, and too much in Vallarta. Personality goes along way, so don't ever stop mucking. I'm leaving one shade of blue and going to another. Finally, to the Fabwhatevers, you guys are the best. If you ever need me just whistle real loud. Wanderers forever.

Charles Park

I hope your stay here was an enjoyable one. I had a pretty swell time here myself. Leaving St. Mike's and everyone here will be awfully difficult, but I try not to think about leaving as saying "good-bye", but more like a "see you again sometime". I hope you all stay out of jail, marry loving and ticklish wives, and find happiness and fulfillment in your life. Hey, like I said before, I'll see you again sometime or if we're really busy I'll see you in Heaven. Take care guys, and good luck in the future.

Lenny Pasqualino

"Whatever doesn't kill you, makes you stronger."

At times I thought I was never going to make it, but I did. I will always remember playing B'ball, V'ball, Football (C Champs), hockey, soccer, and Prom-night (trust me). good luck goes out to the Grads of '95. Thanks to St. Mike's, all my friends and Stephanie, for all your support.

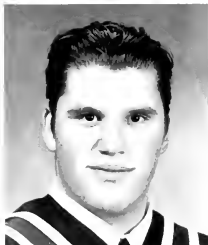

Alex Pasta

I want to graziate my genitors for bringing me in. Shan't forget Sistah Frances, Mis-ter Fisch-cr, JD McKinnon - God speak, Big Mac McGowan, Don DiLeo, Secret Agent Narducci, Kamala Sommers, Joolio, Dave Kamal Ahmed, 2Pac, Montelfur the monkey man, Robert, Fichta, POW. Dough-nut, Saul, Frank, my L.A Posse - Snoop Phil Apogon, Dr. Andre, Joe HyGin'n Juice, Double Bl-izz-ue 'til I'm Thr-izz-ough.

Robert Peerenboom

Great friends and good times at St. Mike's are behind you. The best is yet to come Robert. God be with you.

Daniel Pescador

As I look back at all my years at St. Mike's, I will always remember: Ms. Sommers Grade 11 World Religions period 4A, TDCAA Jr. Football Champions 1992, Skydome 1993, Vermont 1995, T-time at Tim's, study sessions for exams and loopy camp for a week... It's been a great five years from what I can remember. Thanks to Bigwig, the Lieutenant, Jeff and Ryan, and the rest of the boys who made my stay a pleasant one. P.S. It's been fun, but not really.

Paul Pietrangelo

SMC has shown me the way, taught me the truth, and given me a new life. Through good and bad times, SMC was there for me. Five years has been full of good and bad experiences, as well as challenging experiences. Thanks to all the teachers, to the Grads of '95, it's been fun. See you at the reunion. Take care St. Michael's, I will never forget you. Memories: Ms. Sommers period 6, the Brisk Gang, OAC Physics, Alfie, 9er toss and Caf outbursts.

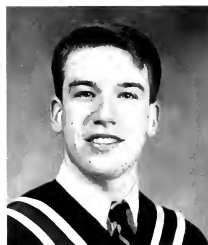

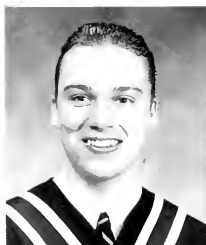

Francesco Policaro

We're all with you as you take on bigger things - May you prosper and grow in God's love.

Ryan Ponesse

Ron Pends Has survived the grueling 5 years, hard work, determination, and good times have prospered and lead the way. Memories from five years of school hockey, OFSAA tennis, the infamous Mr. Tannis, Deadly locker brawls, Peterborough, and Bus 7 will reign in my mind forever. St. Mike's has lead me into the right direction with ethical values and very high standards. Thank goes out to all the boys for the parties never stopped. The 1994-95 Grad class is definitely the best St. Mike's has ever had.

Gregory Ponesse

MM: Bus #7, wrestling, niner day, Beast of England, Fr. Enright's Words are Important tests, Rock Nite, Bahamas, Mr. Narducci's informal Commercial Calc classes, "You have to take the first derivative." Thanks for the memories, boys. See you on the other side!

Andrej Timothy Rakus

Goodness, discipline, and knowledge, you practiced at St. Michael's. Now, Andrej, go out and put them to work in your life ahead.

Robert Rigg

Thanks to my family, teachers, and coaches. Thanks to the Buzzers and all the guys who supported us on Sunday nights. Big shout out to Matt, the leggy crew, the Tunnel Flock and the Saturday night warriors. Memories: Road Trips, "Eight is great", and raving in the New Year x2. "Do, or do not, there is no try." -Yoda. Five years later I can feel the double blue in my blood and in my soul. M... For ever.

Simon Rinella

Don't ever forget Mr. Tannis' French. Mat was rule, broken bones snap and beware of fat women on streetcars. Ms. Sommers was a goddess (is this religion). Did Caesar get home from OFSAA '94? No more broken bones... just dented Toyotas. Every morning is great in OAC Chem. Sidekicks need washing. I'm going to Chiropactic College. Go sleep on Florida's beaches. I paid for school with ice cream. Stack says: Later shop. Hill Boyz, grapplers and Raver Crew. Goodbye and good luck to all grads.

Carlo Oscar Roque

"It's time to run with the big dogs. It's been a long and arduous journey, for five years we have followed the yellow brick hall, but where's the Wizard's Castle? I will always remember Gr. 10 French with Mr. Tannis, Mr. McKernan, everyone of Mr. Thompson's Physics tests, the Gasman Flaman and the Siberian treks with the Gameworld crew. My life has been forever changed by St. Mike's. The code of goodness, discipline, and knowledge has been forever embedded in my mind. The halls I entered as young boy many years ago, I now leave as a man. Thanks for everything.

Never look back with regret - look forward with enthusiasm Daniel and success will be yours.

Michael Salvadori

The past five years at St. Michael's have been rewarding ones for me. I'll always remember ski day, Out of the Cold. Meals on Foot, and Mr. McKernan's OAC English. I have come to appreciate what the words "Goodness, Discipline, Knowledge" really mean. I will always treasure the friends I made and the great memories I experienced at St. Mike's. Thank you for teaching me how to be a better person.

The time has finally come to move on. Thanks to Venez and all of my friends for making the past five years a little easier. St. Mike's has taught me many things I will never forget - you could say I became chronologically "sick and ashamed and happy". Thanks for all the memories. St. Mike's

The works begin and I've completed chapter one. I've scanned the pages most severely, the errors are few and are a trifle merely. Glass after glass is drained 'n' drenching. They've raised a thirst, there is no quenching. The fire is burning, the ashes are shifting. A thread of smoke is curling upward drifting. Whoever you may be, my reader, ally or enemy, attend the words of this most lyrical pleader. What- ever in these careless stanzas you seek: be it of memory, a living picture, or a jest. God grant you find some trifle here, to earn a smile, a dream, or a tear. And now, since I've no more to tell. I take my leave of you - farewell.

Kevin Scott

The time has finally come. The trip is over, but I will forever have the memories: Metrobowl '93, OFSAA basketball '92, '93, '95, all the brouhaha's with the Boyz in Windsor, 3-man at Z's, Edmonton '94 (the water park!), Marco Polo in St. Catharines, and the Milly campaign '93. Thanks to all the Boyz for filling these last five years with a lifetime of memories.

Why has the seemingly interminable water- way of these past five years proven to have been no more than a trickle? It hasn't all been easy going in the least... but it sure has been one fine adventure. Here's to six great shows, Fr. McKinnon Art, Mr. McKernan Inspiration/English and every- thing else I'll miss it all. Keep the faith... Amadeus bids farewell.

My five years at SMC are now at an end, and I can honestly say that I am now ready for the next stage in my life. I will always remember Mr. Tannis' Latin class, Religion seminars, Mr. McKernan's English class, the domino lunch table, and most impor- tantly the Blue Raider family. In closing I would like to ask my brothers (you know who you are) to always remember, "If the soul loves the sun, money rock on!" - Funkdoobiest

Marek Sokolski

It's really difficult to put five years into a simple paragraph. I'll always remember all the early mornings, late nights, and the growing need for coffee. Also, I'll remember Metrobow! '93, Dr. Who, OFSAA wrestling '94, five way brisk, the shop posse, the Almighty Derivative and the Magic Matrix, the winged "M", and "Words Are Important" with Fr. Enright. Bernardino Spensieri

They say never to look back or you'll stay there. I say you have to remember where you've been to know where you're going. It's funny how many memories build up in five years. I'll never forget OAC chem with Mr. Tessaro, working on the yearbook every Friday, and almost 5000 hands of cards! Festa was a blast and yes, I was a founding member of Calceotto. Most important to me were 13 concert performances, consort rehearsals ad infinitum, Brantford '93, The Recital Hall '94, Florida/Bahamas '94 and Europe '95. I am glad that most of my memories are music memories. Good-Bye SMC. I'll never forget you.

Evan Stavrou

Success is the result of hard work. Evan. We will not be surprised at your future success.

Chris Sturino

Study and hard work have brought you success. Never forget your buddies at St. Mike's.

Thanks to all the little men! We rode bus 7, we relaxed and reminisced about times like these; Connelly vs. Mr. T., tilts with U.C.C., five years before I finally realized that lid was not cool, Occult Shop, Skiing at Winston Churchill. Who let me go to Leaside? Why did the boys come to bust me out daily? I know why, because we're SMC, that's something we're always gonna be! Hooray for Branksome

Thanks go out to Mrs. Morra, Mr. Barry, Mr. Monahan, Rudy Hykel, Kevin Tate, Rob Karras and the "Reach for the Top" team. Caveat etudium: avoid OAC Canadian History.

Mark Szucs

St. Mike's, a place where you arrive, and for five years struggle through school work and/or a way out. The odd thing is by the middle of the fifth year you feel like you want to stay, and never leave the friends that you have made who are now like brothers.

Ms. Sommers couldn't survive, the class of '95. We were simply the best boys! Special good-byes to O'Shea (see you soon Clovis), Gagne, Rigg, Costello, Ponesse, Aquino, and anyone else I missed.

It's been a quick four years. Thanks to my teachers Mr. Pagano, Mr. Marlborough, Mr. Fischer, and Mr. Vitullo. Senior "B" has been fun. Howie's sniffls, the Poness Bay incident, Hill Billy Willys with Chris and Jay. Thanks to Quinton De Klerk and Chris Italia for helping me write this up.

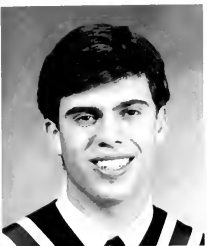

David Veneziano

Thanks to my parents for footing the bill. There are far too many memories to single out but a few, so I'll just say "thanks". Thanks to my teachers for all you did. Thanks to my friends - Scarps, the Gino table and everyone else - for the laughs. Thanks to Laura for brightening my days. And thanks to St. Michael's - for everything. I'll miss all of this.

Jason Villanueva

First, I would like to thank God for blessing me with talent and for the opportunity to use it. My family - for all your inspiration and guidance throughout these SMC years. Throughout the past five years at SMC, everyday was always different. New faces come and go, championships were won and lost. Memories, good and bad, will be remembered forever. Two TDCAA football championships, three years of wrestling, five years at St. Mike's and numerous friends will remain in my memory. Life in the SMC environment was always enjoyable, it's too bad that school work got in the way of all the fun.

Damon Wood

Here are just a few memories from the past five years: grade nine art ... 40? Period 6 with Mrs. Sommers, HFC in Bio with Mr. Chittle, the Ring, Damon's Top Ten, Laughing insanely for no particular reason, (you see that dot over there?) the Pentagon List, watching the blue spruce in English class ... it's awesome! Mornings under the buzzer, and oh yeah, I walked into a pole.

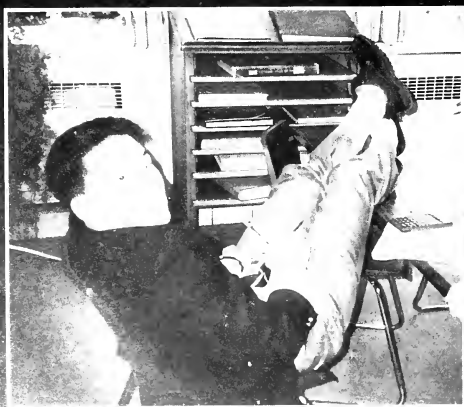

Thomas Woyzbun

We valued your presence here Tom. We look forward to your future success.

Michael Zavershnik

No song quotes, no poems. I need only to thanks those who made high school bearable. To all the boys (you know who you are) I'll never forget you or the memories we shared. Corny as that may sound, this place would not have been the same without you. For all those who haven't asked yet: Yes, I play basketball, I'm 6'8" and the weather up here is just great thanks.

Valedictory Address

Once upon a time, a group of naïve, miniature miners set out on the journey of a lifetime - the journey towards manhood and maturity. Although the steps on this road were made of yellow bricks, this was no fairy tale, for the path that these boys had chosen lead through the "Students Entrance" arch and into the hallways and classrooms of St. Michael's College School. Inspired by the tradition of excellence of SMC, these youngsters were transformed into leaders and champions. It is this group of former miners that stands here on Graduation Day for the final time together, as the Class of 1995.

This year's graduates came from all over the province to have the honour of calling themselves St. Michael's Men. From the wilds of Woodbridge, to the far eastern reaches of Ajax, they came. From the western prairie farmlands of Milton and Oakville, to the frozen north of Richmond Hill, they came. From all across Metro, fighting stop-and-go traffic and haphazard TTC service, they came. They came to Bathurst and St. Clair to receive what could not be had anywhere else - the best education, the best teachers, the best clubs and teams, the best in arts and sports. In short, the came to experience the St. Mike's tradition.

And for five years, we have learned and lived that tradition - best expressed by our school motto: "teach me goodness, discipline and knowledge." That is not to say that five years ago, we were undisciplined, evil and stupid. Rather, the priests and teachers have taught us, over our high school careers, to hone the qualities that were and are present within each of us. It seems symbolic, then, that the staff constantly reminded us to have our crests sewn tightly onto our blazers - right over our hearts. They have devoted their wisdom, kindness, time, energy, and talents to our betterment and have merited that, in return, we live our lives the way their teachings suggest - the way of the gospel and of Christ. There is no better way to thank the men and women who made our education and maturity possible than to spread that goodness, discipline, and knowledge into the world.

For the graduates, today is a day of mixed emotion: the joy of finally finishing high school, the fear and excitement of growing up faced with new responsibilities, coupled with the sadness of having to say good-bye to the faces we have spent five years saying hello to every morning. We have all grown up together since that Wednesday in September, 1990, when Mr. Prendergast first summoned us to "proceed to your homerooms and prepare for morning prayer," and our shared experiences have seen us develop into a family of 180 brothers. Who can forget the years spent together, the games, the study sessions, the Bubba-Lou, the Hoikety-Choi, the weekends, the exams, the spurs in the cafe, lunch at Fatso's, world championship calcetto on the tennis courts? Today when we receive our diplomas, we take with us all these memories - memories which will last a lifetime. And when we look back on our years at St. Michael's, it will be these memories which remind us of the St. Mike's tradition forever: Joe Baring's impressive stack of Blue notes, Paul Fitzpatrick's hard hat, Charlie Gordanio's cheers, Mike Gleeson's work ethic, Dave Veneziano's 100's, Mike Loretto's pick-off move, Simon Woo's unique name, and, of course, Charles Park's Grad Blue Jay game. As we stand here for the last time as a class, we need only look around at the friends we have made and the experiences we have shared to realize why coming to St. Mike's was one of the best decisions we could ever have made.

For each of us, the Double Blue of St. Mike's means something different, but all those differences can be capitalized into one word: "pride". Double Blue pride for some was the thrill of victory on the football field, in the Rauder-Dome, and in the arena. Our years here, from 1990 to 1995, saw SMC capture an almost unbelievable number of league championships: in Track and Cross-

Country, in Basketball, in Hockey, in Football, in Volleyball, and nearly every other sport we tried our hand at. We sent teams to the SkyDome for provincial championships in Football and most recently for Baseball. But, for the Class of 1995, the pride of the Double Blue did not stop there. Our debaters, our Reach-for-the-Toppers, our Math club members, and the talented crop of actors and musicians in the drama and music departments also were victorious in their endeavours. In the community at large, St. Mike's continued to churn out champions. Programmes such as Meals-on-Wheels, Out-of-the-Cold, the Green Council, Students-for-Life, and the Good Shepherd Refuge all showed that St. Michael's men can put into practice those Christian ideals and principles upon which the Basilians founded our school 143 years ago.

The personal pride that each of us has in the St. Michaels' tradition can be seen in our academic successes. With the education we have received, most of us will continue on next year to universities around the continent. Armed with knowledge gleaned by listening to our teachers/philosophers, who encouraged us to "read the book man?" and to "look at the blue spruce", we are able to continue on our journeys, wherever they may take us. Five years have taught us the "ministry-approved" things we were supposed to learn: setting the derivative to zero in calculus, making a contour map in geography, evaluating GNP in economics, and charting the rise and fall of ancient Greece in history. The teachers of St. Mike's, however, taught us much more than just that. Since grade nine, we have learned: the history of the JFK plot, the art of Kung-Fu, the difference between dress shoes and black running shoes, and the exact numbers of hours a student can let his beard grow before being sent to 214 by Mr. Dignan. Most importantly, though, we have learned how to think for ourselves, to make decisions, and to be responsible for our actions. Long after the contents of the Physics text book have been forgotten (perhaps they already have), we will retain that aspect of our education. And therein lies the value of our years at St. Michael's: the pride associated with the overcoming of ignorance and immaturity.

We must take time today to thank our families and friends for their support during our time at St. Mike's. They stand alongside us, glowing with pride that we have reached this stage. Without the sacrifices and encouragement of these people, much of what we have accomplished would not have been possible. We must thank also the Basilian fathers and the priest and lay teachers, whose efforts inspired and directed us. Especially today, we should take time to remember those who will not be back in the St. Mike's community next year: our former principal Fr. Dennis Foy, and our expert on the fine arts Fr. Robert McKinnon, both of whom are retiring, Mr. Mike Zahra (who was a miner with us and leaves with us as graduates) and Mr. James Oatt, both of whom are exploring further educational opportunities, and our chaplain Fr. Joe Grasso, who is leaving after one year of showing us that you can be a priest and still be cool. We thank these men and all those who have offered so much to us for five years. But, most importantly, we should thank ourselves for striving to succeed and persevering for the past five years. As we hauled ourselves out of bed each morning at 6:30, we probably wondered if it was all worth it. Today, and every day after, as we continue our journey as St. Mike's alumni, we will see exactly what the St. Michael's education has done for us.

St. Mike's has given us so many memories to reflect back on fondly and so much hope for the future. When we meet again at a reunion after ten, twenty, or twenty-five years, who among you will be able to recall the inflatable cow heist, or the thousands of hours spent playing Briscola in the cafeteria. Surely, the memory of Mrs. Sommers' world religion class is imprinted indelibly on all our brains. Though we say good-bye to the school and to our classmates, they will forever be a part of our lives: the place and people that shaped us in our teen years and made up what we are today and what we will be in the future. We leave today as we came, separately, but not as sheepish miners hiding behind our parents' - instead, as men ready to try our hand at the real world, with the support and strength of the Winged "M" - the "M" that stands for manhood and maturity, indeed for St. Michael's. Congratulations and God bless.

STAGE &

"The few, the proud, the stupid, the inept."
Sometimes it's difficult to decide which is which, but the SMC Stage Crew always leaves it's mark. The crew is invariably made up of experts; lights experts, construction experts, paint experts, and telephone experts. These experts lent their talents (prankish and otherwise) to two SMC productions this year: "Murder in the Cathedral" and "Jesus Christ Superstar". Moving in the shadows behind the scenes, on the catwalks and in the catacombs their work was an integral part of both productions. In this they were guided by, and are grateful to, Mr. Otino Corsano. Lastly, to quote one of "The Crew": "We're not actors, and proud of it!"

St. Michael's Arena: The Tradition Continues

St. Michael's Arena enjoys a cherished status within the school and Basilian community. The facility is perceived as clean, bright, and attractive by various user groups and spectators. Annual traffic through the building is estimated at 250,000 patrons. St. Michael's Arena accommodated twenty distinct school teams this last season - consisting of the Junior "A" Buzzers, four clubs in the TDCAA league, and fifteen intramural teams. There were also 10 physical education classes with the total student involvement totalling over 500 boys. St. Michael's Arena also welcomes approximately 240 alumni and friends to various adult programs. Minor hockey is represented by the Blessed Sacrament House

Mr. Barry McDermott

League program, the Metropolitan Toronto Hockey League, and the St. Michael's Summer Hockey School. The facility has been under the direction of Barry McDermott for the last twelve years. Former St. Michael's students Robert Tunney, Stephen Tunney and Paulo Pergola complete the permanent staff, while approximately twenty-five students provide part-time service. St. Michael's Arena is now thirty-five years old and is well positioned to continue the Basilian Fathers' tradition in hockey dating from 1907.

The autumn of 1994 saw the arrival of SMC's greatest afterschool tournament. A tournament unparalleled by any before it. Thanks to Il Circolo Italiano (the SMC Italian Association) Calcetto arrived in Canada for the first time.

Calcetto evolved during the 1993-94 lunch hour from its larger, world famous brother sport, Calcio. Being considerably smaller than its predecessor, Calcetto requires only two small nets and half the SMC tennis court, five players, and a goalie per side. Its popularity grew quickly and by the autumn of 1994 St. Mike's was ready for its first Calcetto tournament.

Word of the tournament spread quickly through these hallowed halls of yellow brick and soon eighteen teams stepped forward; each eager to test their mettle in the challenge to claim the coveted title of "Tournament Champion".

Everyday after school in October teams faced off, each in the search of victory. Shots were saved and goals were scored, dreams were made, and hopes were shattered.

Out of this perfect combination of excitement and action emerged two teams to battle it out on a full court final game: Team Canada and Milan.

On October 25 SMC history was made. After a 4-1 defeat of Team Canada, Milan was crowned the first "Calcetto Tournament Champion".

Its inaugural season demonstrated that, without a doubt, Calcetto will have a long and popular history at St. Michael's.

A Year Revisited

The 1994-1995 school year was full of changes that challenged and changed established traditions; baseball strikes ruined the World Series, a certain football star saw his fame dissolve into infamy (Hall of Fame to Hall of Blame?), hockey strikes shortened the hockey season, and a certain mischievous young banker put an entire institution into bankruptcy. In this maelstrom of negative changes, the 1994-95 Student Council stood as beacon of positive originality; in short, we did things our way.

Starting the year with an impeached president (read Führer) and an unprecedented five members, the Council got off on the right foot (not wing!). By using the traditional Grub Days to raise money for Out Of The Cold and other needy organizations, the Council was able to reward the students for their kindness and help the poor at the same time.

The renewal of the fall brought a series of unheard of events. The ever-popular and now immortal Tailgate Charlie's was introduced to the football games and the first outdoor dance "Outrageous" was held. Both were successful only because of enthusiastic staff and student support.

The winter cold kept us all inside and provided us all with an opportunity to look inside ourselves. Mr. Jerry Howarth spoke to the students on the values that St. Michael's was giving us, and armed with a new consciousness the Council organized a massive used clothing drive for Out Of The Cold and its partner organisations. On the social scene, students of all grades participated in both the Blue Blizzard Semi-Formal and the Two-Floor Tornado, which contradicted their classification as natural disasters.

With the spring came warmer weather and a new enthusiasm for what was to come. As well as the usual Grub Days, students were entertained by the amazing talents of their peers at the annual Rock Nite. As the end of the year was in clear view (and confidentials were already in), the graduating students began their final preparations with retreats and collective planning of their Graduation Formal and graduation ceremony. Both these events were successful as they provided the Class of 1995 with an opportunity to look forward optimistically and reminisce with fondness.

As with the karmic cycle of life, the old is replaced with the new. As with the 1994-94 Student Council, their term had to come to an end, and a new Council had to be welcomed. We wish the new Student Council the best of luck in the new year, and hope that their hard work is met with the same enthusiasm that St. Michael's gave us.

"Good luck have thought with thine honour: ride on, because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness."

Saturday mornings are sacred. For revellers they serve as a respite from the previous evening's nocturnal excesses or provide the aspiring poet with a placid contemplative morning on the lake. For the men of St. Michael's Debating Society, Saturday mornings are equally blessed with importance. It is then, that these soldiers of rhetoric, these defenders of controversy make their treks to distant schools in order to argue, debate, amuse, and participate, but above all, to be gentlemen. This year the Blue Rhetores had the honour of numbering among its ranks not only some of the most talented debaters in Toronto, but also the most decent and gentlemanly ones.

The Novice division collected accolades for its consistently strong placings, especially during the latter part of the year. The novices, all in their first year, made St. Mike's proud by placing third at the provincial level.

St. Mike's fielded one of its strongest Junior teams in recent years. The lucid and original approaches to resolutions brought forth garnered the team a nearly flawless record through the season. The Juniors, took third place at the provincial finals.

The young Rhetores senior division, consisting primarily of Grade 12 students, was most fruitful in terms of material acquisitions. The Seniors captured first place at provincials to leave no doubt in anyone's mind of St. Mike's rhetorical excellence.

Individually Rob Piroli, Jason D'Cruz, Guillem Gonzales-Lomas, and Cosimo Fuda represented St. Mike's at the Ontario Student Debating Union Metro West Finals. Guillem and Jason advanced further to the provincial finals, where Jason obtained a ninth place distinction.

Furthermore SMC hosted an extremely successful debate which included guest speakers on both sides of the logging controversy. The Society's achievements, however, would have been but a speck of dust in the imagination had not the dedication and hard work of some been present. Much appreciation extends to Moderator Mr. Quinn, Mrs. Morra, Greg Leung and Andrej Rakus who sacrificed many of those "sacred Saturdays" to judge and organize debates. Debating is alive and well at St. Michael's.

The Tradition Continues – Another Successful Year For The Blue Herald

As you may have been able to deduce from the title, the academic year 1994–95 has been a fruitful one for our distinguished student publication, The Blue Herald. We reached new heights with the publication of four issues this year under the 'definitive' leadership of Anthony Marchie, editor-in-chief. In addition to Anthony's hard work, recognition must be shared with the senior editors, especially the graduating staff. The Blue Herald would like to extend its gratitude to all others who helped in the creation, management and distribution of this proud institution of the men of St. Michael's.

FORMIDABLE!

The excitement never ends!

Typical Parisians

Paris' in in the Springtime

At the very genesis of the 'Le Club', there was always something it seemed we were destined to do. We usually referred to this, throughout 1993, as 'Le Trip', and also as something that would likely never happen. Well, 1994-1995 rolled around, and it seemed that the trip was about to become a reality. March Break arrived, and as it did, so did we, at Charles DeGaulle airport. Le Club, accompanied by several other brave voyagers, was in Paris, France.

No one came away from the trip disappointed, and there were very few unfortunate "incidents". Sure, one or two may have been hit by a flying canned ham, and some were confined to hospital with Tang poisoning, but aside from that...

The trip was punctuated by a groovy discotheque at the hotel, a bit of the fine wine, and a lot of jetlag. Who could have known that our tour guide really was Amanda Donahoe?

No one was happy to return, but by now I'm sure everyone has been able to stop saying Zut Alors! So to conclude, Zut Alors! Lock up your gerbils! Le Club is on the loose, and now we've got plane tickets!

FESTIVAL

When the snow melts and the April sun shines and the spring breezes blows, hockey players are known to hang up their skates and pads, right? Wrong! It is at this time of year true lovers of hockey start to shine. After the Buzzers et al have given their best shots, their last elbow punch and the last stick across an opponent's back - true lovers of hockey take the ice. We are speaking of that noble breed who make up the H.H.L (the hockey house league). To be eligible one must not have played organized hockey before and must agree to go along with the referees' decision no matter how unjust the call. Here is the story of our April-May heroes: The Senators were the class of the Junior division of the H.H.L. Steve Monticolo was the best of the Senators and leading scorer. Pat Breech and Steve Ancie also contributed well. The Bruins battled the Senators in the final. For the Bruins, Justin Necpal, David Gwillams and Noel Di Tosto were outstanding. The season was hampered by a shortage of goalies and goalie equipment but Steve Young with the loan of equipment saved the situation. Mike Lerangi, Chris Ponziani and Gero Petrolito played goal in the final season contests. Jason Geerts and Sean O'Leary helped with the scoring.

Mike Spagnuolo and Rob Davidson were dependable referees.

Junior teams were organized as follows:

BRUINS: Ash, Di Tosto, Gwillams, Ivancic, Kuliavas, Necpal, Rovito, Salvatori.

SENATORS: Ancie, Berriman, Breech, Diamond, Douglas, Farlew, McDowell, Menticola, Wagner, Vasileca

LEAFS: Barnes, Gasdia, Kinghorn, Mastrodicasa, Mihevc, Moniz, Sciani.

STARS: Cranis, Causic, deSouza, Kim, Kyrzkos, Liscio, Pawzluuk, Ponesse, Hurley, Shock, Spencer

The Senior Division of the House League operated under the supervision of Father Volpe and the Junior division was under the guidance of Father Enright. Congratulations to both for their efforts to keep the tradition alive and well.

Students passing by the Arena building on their way to the subway and home will notice, regardless of the time of day, that the door of the Music Department is open. Climb the stairs, enter the room and you will be looking in on an assortment of students who are practising their musical skills on flute, horn, clarinet, percussion or various kinds of keyboards. There must be a certain chemistry there which the two instructors, Mr. Paul Pietrkiewicz and Mr. James Oatt have, by which their enthusiasm is communicated to the students. Music students are characterized by their devotion to this field of the arts much to their credit and the benefit of all St. Michaels.

SCHOOL REACH

The glorious legacy of 'Reach For The Top' at St. Michael's was continued by the 1994-1995 edition of the Senior Blue Lights. The Blue Lights have always been among the most feared and respected teams in the Toronto league and the '94-'95 season was no exception. Because of its status as the defending Toronto Champion, St. Michael's was granted the unprecedented opportunity to enter two senior teams into the league (SMC 'A' and SMC 'B'). Thanks in large part to the efforts of the moderator, Mrs. Pat Boland, both St. Michael's teams dominated regular season play against Jarvis Collegiate, Loretto Abbey, North Toronto, and arch rival Leaside, to name a few. SMC 'A' proceeded to capture the league Championship, which qualified them for the 32-team Ontario Provincial Playoffs at the University of Toronto.

After the preliminary 11 game playoff round at the Provincials, SMC was ranked fourth in Ontario. However, the Blue Lights were defeated in the quarter-finals by Turner-Fenton of Brampton. Despite its disappointing conclusion, 1994-1995 was one of the most successful seasons in recent memory. The strong performance by all team members points to future success for the Blue Lights in the years to come.

Once again another year has come and gone. By the time you, the staff and students read this another will have already begun. New students entering grade nine are experiencing high-school life for the first time while others have moved on to university. From the time that we the students enter to the day they leave as graduates, we have and continues to learn and grow. This maturation from childhood to manhood is quite eloquently expressed in the Valedictory Address (pg. 86), illustrating the hope of the Basilian father in guiding us towards our future. It is this growth, not only physically but mentally and spiritually, that we decided should be the focus of this year's edition of the Tower. As one flips through the pages one can see the evolution from the younger students to the older students.

Just as the students have grown and evolved over the years, so has the Tower. With the rising importance of computers in our society, Fr. Cullen and the senior editors felt it was time that yearbook production at St. Michael's moved into the future. The book you now hold in your hands is the first edition of the Tower to have been completely produced on computer using desktop publishing programs. The Tower staff is extremely proud of this achievement in bringing you the best possible yearbook.

BRAD SCHMIDT JASON LUK

I have considered using this space to further discuss the theme of this book, or the benefits of a good Catholic education, or the events of the past year, however others have already chosen to do so (See pages 2, 86, and 140). Therefore after much indecision I have chosen, at the insistence of the senior Tower staff, to take this opportunity to educate, enlighten, and inform by dispelling several persisting yearbook myths.

Myth 1: All the one hundred and forty-four pages, cover, and end pages of the yearbook are produced during a two week span either before Christmas, or during March Break, or during a weekend among June exams.

This is the best joke going at the moment. The work on the yearbook begins the first week back at school and does not stop until the final week in June. It begins with choosing a dedicated staff, teaching them something about layout and quickly leads to our first deadline of the school year, usually in December. All those long days and late night work sessions continue all year, not just when we feel the crunch.

Myth 2: The reason the yearbook has a fall delivery is that the yearbook staff is too lazy to finish the job on time.

Nothing is further from the truth! We choose a fall delivery for the sake of all students, especially for our Graduates, because the book is more current than a book delivered at the end of the year (Believe it!) All those other schools that choose June deliveries must have their yearbooks completed by March. Choosing a fall delivery allows us to include all those events which others may deem insignificant but which we consider important, like the soccer team, the baseball team, Prentice Cup at the Dome, the Formal, and Graduation, allowing the Tower to fully reflect the past year at SMC in its entirety. If these items were not included, students would have to wait until the end of the following school year to see them!

Myth 3: Deadlines are flexible.

There is a reason they are called deadlines. Our deadlines are non-negotiable, and we dare not miss one of them. Missed deadlines slow the entire process down, pushing the delivery back dramatically, and it may cost more for further corrections. For this reason we set up our plans for each deadline with all our requirements in mind, which relates directly to the next yearbook myth, number four.

Myth 4: If something doesn't make it in for one deadline, it can always be sent with another.

We in the publishing biz make measurements in picas, speak with terms like the ladder, pantone, and natural spreads, and our build our books with signatures. A signature consists of a set of sixteen pages sewn together, with a series of signatures attached together to form the entire book. To see the nine signatures of this book, examine the area protected by the spine. These small books are what dictate which pages are sent for a deadline. Signatures must be delivered as a whole, so we cannot send your picture or grad write-up with the next deadline.

As I work through the continual bad weather in this final week of June, I can only hope that this insight into the world of publishing has been as thrilling to read as it has been to write.
